

Investing for Success

Under this agreement for 2019
Gogango State School will receive

$5 362*

This funding will be used to

- Ensure that 100% of Year 3 & 5 students (2019) (who are not on Individual Curriculum Plan) will achieve at or above the National Minimum Standard in National Assessment Program – Literacy and Numeracy (NAPLAN).
- Ensure that all students are able to write at a level appropriate to their year of schooling (unless on an Individual Curriculum Plan).

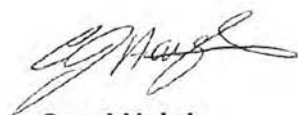

Our initiatives include

- Build staff capacity in the teaching of literacy, as outlined in the Annual Implementation Plan.
- Assess, identify and monitor learning goals for all students in writing.

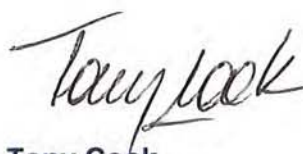

Our school will improve student outcomes by

- Building staff capacity in the teaching of literacy through sourcing professional development opportunities.
- Gathering and monitoring data to show student progress in writing.
- Increasing Teacher Aide hours to enable the teaching principal to provide targeted support in the area of writing.
